MEN and GOD

By Ferdinand Ossendowski

The New York Times calls it "A book of astounding, breath-taking, enthralling adventure . . . a journey through the oldest and now probably the wildest of the regions of civilization, in which the traveller faced danger and death in a greater variety of ways, saw more astounding things, penetrated more mysteries than has any other man who has embarked upon perilous adventure these many days. . . . Aside from the marvels and the dangers of the journey . . . his report of and comment upon the native life and the unrest that is disturbing it give much authentic and desirable information of conditions that may yet be of highest consequence to the rest of the world . . . . It is a fascinating book. Price $3.00

THE LIFE OF CARDINAL GIBBONS (Archbishop of Baltimore)

By ALLEN SINCLAIR WILL, M.A., Litt.D., LL.D.

The authoritative story of the great leader of the Catholic Church in the United States, one of the most powerful and fascinating personalities of his time, patriot, statesman and sage, as well as ecclesiastic, told by the biographer and intimate friend to whom he revealed his own life and the philosophy of it in a series of conversations for that purpose which extended over a long period. It has thus the authority and the flavor of autobiography. It will stand among Americans beside the lives of Bishop Brooks and Theodore Roosevelt or the achievements of Grover Cleveland.

In two illustrated royal 8vo. volumes. The set, $10.00
